HAWAIIAN MAIL DELIVERY WORRY OF POSTMASTER

By C. S. ALBERT.
[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—The matter of maintaining regular postal communication with Hawaii is now one of the problems added to the troubles of Postmaster General Burleson. He has been sitting up nights for a month worrying over the complications presented by the war in Europe. Now, he has taken on the Far Eastern feature of the world-wide struggle.

Following right on the heels of notice that Japan would give Germany one week to evacuate her possessions in China came information that all Japanese-owned vessels would cancel their sailing dates and remain in American ports until the German cruisers had been wiped off the Pacific. The first notice of a cancelled date came from the Persia, scheduled to leave San Francisco Saturday, August 22.

Upon receiving this intelligence, Postmaster General Burleson blew up. He declared that his existing troubles were sufficient for one man to carry on a salary of but $12,000 a year. But when his second wind came along he began active preparations to send bundles of mail on to Hawaii as if nothing unusual had happened.

Even if the worst transpires, which is unlikely, there will remain a good, old army transport starting for the Orient on the first of each month. This vessel will clear up all the accumulated mails for Hawaii and bring them up to date. Before another month rolls around the situation is expected to have worked its own solution, along with the efforts of the Postmaster General.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh yourself again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scale and tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put, but mixing with your food, it turns the fat, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co., and Hollister Drug Co.—advertisement.

RAISULI, NOTED BRIGAND, IS REPORTED DEAD

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
LONDON, September 5.—Cabling from Tetuan, Morocco, the Exchange Telegraph correspondent says that Raisuli, the noted Moorish brigand and pretender to the Moorish throne, is dead. Raisuli gained fame some years ago when he captured and held to ransom the Greek-American Pericardis, in the sum of $50,000. This act was followed by an American naval demonstration against Tangier, and eventually the captive was released.

AND TEDDY SAID: "I KNOW IT."

(A Song of Him Who Knows It.)
By Adolphe Danziger
in the Los Angeles Times.

When Teddy was the President
And tried to pull his top lip down,
Twice Loeb who said, "Oh, Ted, you're meant."

To be a king and wear a crown—
Your noble features show it—
And Teddy said, "I know it."

King Solomon you far outshine,
No wisdom his in making bids
For wives as cattle kings for king;
You stand supreme for raising kids—
Your Mother Speeches show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

Your ANANIAS was a peach,
And David's maxims beats by far;
It took the King FOUR words to teach
That all opponents liars are,
And you but ONE to show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

You're more sublime than Washington
And Lincoln, put them on a pile;
Napoleon and Wellington
Were no more than a skinned mile.
The Cuban Records show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

As Statesman you're of world repute;
As Orator you're greater than—
But why compare? You're beyond dispute.
THE UNIVERSAL TALKING MAN—
Your constant speeches show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

I know, dear Ted, you're called by fate
To be the first Columbian king;
To found a line and royal state,
Supported by a steel-trust ring.
As only you can show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

If you could go to Timbuctoo,
And there ostensibly to hunt;
Then find a river, take a few
Old races for a lecture stunt—
Even Darwin couldn't show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

And then, oh, Ted, you'd come in style.
You'd show them earth no white man trod.
They'll name you surely in a while—
What you with grace can be—a god—
As your creations show it.
And Teddy said, "I know it."

Don't go home tonight all out of sorts
With a headache—brain in a whirl. Take Sargol and go home care

Five Thousand Tourists a Week AND THEIR CASH VALUE TO HONOLULU.

A Series of Ad Club Talks for Honolulu.

NO. 6. SPEAKING OF HABITS.

Another thing, while we're speaking of habits. The average tourist is apt to bring his vegetable habit with him, isn't he? Is likely to want his table spread very much as he has it at home. Well, that kind of a table requires, just for 5,000 average persons, something like $4,300 worth of vegetables a week. Forty-three hundred dollars, at farmer's prices, and for 5,000 average persons. For tourists, who have a greater variety and more expensive quality of vegetables than the average, it'd easily run above $5,000 a week. And since the farmer gets less than half the retail price, it'd be at least $10,000 a week for the retailers. So, there you are! You, Mr. Farmer. You, Mr. Truck Gardener. You, Mr. Market Man. It's the kind of a bunch of new business that gives you the Great Desire, isn't it? The Great Desire to be one of those that help to get it.

Thus might we go on to the end of a long, long chapter. Might let this new kind of 5,000-tourists-a-week sunshine in on practically every line of business in the islands. For instance, it takes over 6,000 gallons of milk a week for 5,000 travelers—which, at the average American farmer's price of 16 cents a gallon, is $800 a week, and at the average retail price of 10 cents a quart is $2,000 a week! That much, or somewhere between $800 and $2,000 a week, for dairymen's associations. That much to encourage those who are trying to build themselves up in the dairy business, and to overcome the difficulties which have been encountered in dairying in the islands.

Also for instance: There's the hay business. Cows in the islands probably don't use as much hay and forage of the ordinary kind as on the mainland. Neither do horses—because they have the aigaboga feed. But when you learn that it takes an average of over a hundred tons of hay and forage a week to keep the cows and the horses that are necessary for the support and the service of five thousand persons, it makes even you, Mr. Hay and Grain Importer, or Grower, have a little itching in your legs, doesn't it, to get around and talk the subject over? Makes you want to dig in and boost for the 5,000 tourists a week? Eh?

(Note.—At the urgent request of a number of prominent businessmen of Honolulu the above series of Ad Club Talks, all of which have been previously printed in the Star-Bulletin, will be reproduced from time to time during the next few weeks. It appears to be the unanimous belief of the business community that facts and figures presented in this concrete manner will prove of unprecedented benefit to the community at large.)

RUDYARD KIPLING IS ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

[By latest mail.]
LONDON, Aug. 28.—Rudyard Kipling, who lives near Brighton, on the south coast, was arrested as a suspicious person while taking one of his regular constitutional along the sea front.

He entered into the fun of the thing, in fact he was delighted at being taken for a possible German spy, inasmuch as it proved to him in a most convincing manner that a vigilant watch is being kept.

Kipling was detained for some time, during which he was searched, but eventually his identity was established, and he was set free with apologies.

One of the features of the Washington building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition will be Ezra Meeker and his team of oxen. Meeker, white of hair and beard, is in San Francisco and will drive his team from the state of Washington to the exposition at the opening next year. A few years ago he drove them over the trail from Seattle to Washington, D. C.

CLEANSER YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL

It becomes thick, wavy, lustrous and all dandruff disappears—Hair stops coming out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanser" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed—advertisement.

ROME, September 5.—It was officially announced last night that Pope Benedict has named Cardinal Domenico Ferrata as Papal secretary of state, in succession to Cardinal Merry del Val. The new Papal secretary is an Italian, who has been secretary of the Congregation of the Holy Office and is a celebrated theologian. He is nearest in disposition and habits to the late Pontiff. He is in his sixty-sixth year, and is one of the few surviving members of the college of cardinals raised to the cardinalate by the late Pope Leo XIII.

The fall term of the Valley school, Nuanu and Kuakini streets, will commence Tuesday morning, September 8. The school was open from 9 until 12 o'clock this morning for registration.

From the seat of war the jewels which are to be used with splendid effect at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition have arrived safely in New York. Austria is furnishing these hand cut glass jewels and a delay of a few days would have meant that the exposition would have lost one of its most spectacular features. The steel work for the 435 foot "Tower of Jewels" is up and awaiting the placing of the 125,000 jewels.

SUGAR BEET FORECAST SHOWS LARGE YIELD

By C. S. ALBERT.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—The Agricultural Outlook, issued by the Department of Agriculture on August 23, gives the sugar-beet forecast as follows:

"The condition of sugar beets August 1 was 92.4 per cent of a normal. This forecasts a yield per acre of about 10.3 tons. The actual outcome will likely be above or below this amount, according as conditions to harvest are better or worse than usual. A yield of 10.3 tons on the estimated planted acreage, 530,000 acres, amounts to 5,432,000 tons; but there is usually some abandonment, the average in recent years being 10 per cent. Assuming an average abandonment of 10 per cent, there would result about 4,826,000 tons of sugar beets. The production in 1913 was 5,559,000 tons; in 1912, 5,224,000; in 1911, 5,062,000; and in 1910, 4,047,000 tons."

As a moss gatherer the rolling joke heads the list.
